THE YEARSLEY FAMILY,

CHESTER Co. Pa.

Note.- All localities named in this record are in Pennsylvania, ~~and in Chester Co. Pa.~~ most of them in Chester co.

This family descended from John Yearsley who, with his wife Elizabeth and five children, migrated from England to Pennsylvania in the year 1700. He was a Friend, and a member of the meeting at Middlewich, Cheshire, which town was probably his birthplace. The date of his birth can only be approximated, but is not probably about 1680. Pursuant to the order of the religious society to which he belonged, he brought with him a certificate, of which the following is a copy:

This is to certify to whom it may concern, that ye bearer, John Yearsley, of Middlewich, hath had a desire and inclination to transport himself, wife and children, unto ye Province of Pennsylvania; and he having laid before ye meeting of ye friends at Middlewich, whereof he is a member, his desire and intention for so doing, and desired ye consent and advice of ye meeting for so great, weighty undertaking, and finding no friend or friends yt do gainsay ye contrary, now knowing nothing but yt hee hath walked humbly with the Lord, and according to truth and conscience equally and justly with all persons with whom he hath had to deal with all; and yt his wife and children have walked carefully and with out blame as with relation to ye truth, and having nothing to charge them with, but desiring their prospering and welfare in ye same, doe give them this our certificate to our well beloved friends in Pennsylvania, desiring their reception of them in Love and Unity, if God all-Mighty see pleased to bring them safe thither, as we shall see for say yt may have a desire to return from thence with your certificate.

Signed at our monthly meeting, held at Hampton ye 29th of 1st mo. 1700.

John Yearsley the immigrant, with his family, settled in Thornbury, where he owned an extensive farm. He died early in 1708. His wife long survived him, and died in 1728. His immediate posterity were all, or nearly all, Friends, and led the quiet, pious and industrious life usually characteristic of members of that sect. They showed little disposition to seek for a better life abroad, and the early generations of the family lived and died near the homestead of the immigrant.
